STOCK TEAM HAULED TO TRAIN

After a Mass Meeting "Ags." Gave Judges a Send-off.

A crowd of cheering students running and pulling a carry-all in which a group of men were seated, surprised the people on Broadway yesterday afternoon. They could not understand why a football squad was being taken to the train when the Kansas game was to be played Saturday.

But these were not football players. They were men selected as the live stock judging team which will represent the University of Missouri at the International Live Stock Show in Chicago, December 2.

A mass meeting was held in the Agricultural Auditorium at which Dean F. B. Mumford, Prof. A. J. Meyer and W. L. Nelson spoke. The students in the College of Agriculture then pulled the team to the Wash station in a carry-all. There they gave the Farmer yells and expressed their desire for the men to be the winning team as the one of last year.

The students who have been selected to take this trip and represent the College of Agriculture will be away two weeks. They first went to Kansas City where they will inspect one of the packing plants. From then until the contest at Chicago various breeding stations will be visited and the record of the various judging qualities which each man shows will be kept by E. A. Trowbridge, professor of animal husbandry. He has charge of the team. The men who make the highest record in stock judging at these stations will judge for Missouri at Chicago. Different towns in Missouri will be visited. Indiana and Wisconsin are two other states in which they will visit breeding stations.

The men on the team are: T. R. Haden, W. T. Wasel, E. C. King, R. L. Hill, George T. Lipp, W. E. Cramer and H. F. Williams.
